

Comments on RM-10786

I fully agree with the elimination of the Morse code from the Amateur requirement for advancement into General and Extra Classes.

You as a commission said that the only requirement to keep the code was the requirement of ITU. With the elimination of this requirement the Morse code should be treated like any other form of communication, which are allowed under the current set of regulations. The Morse code should not be afforded any special protection.